

ILLINOIS RACING BOARD

April 2, 2014

GOVERNOR QUINN ANNOUNCES APPOINTMENT TO RACING BOARD

CHICAGO, IL – Governor Pat Quinn announced the appointment of Thomas McCauley to the Illinois Racing Board. Mr. McCauley, a member of the Chicago law firm Nisen & Elliott, LLC, concentrates in corporate law, commercial loan transactions, gaming law and real estate. Racing experience includes legal representation of racetracks in Illinois, Massachusetts and Indiana. Mr. McCauley is a graduate of Georgetown University and has a J.D. from Loyola University School of Law. He fills the vacancy of former Board member Patricia Beauvais.